

Instructions to Authors

1. Submission. Authors should submit three printed copies of their papers to the Editorial Office along with an abstract in Italian and English of not more than 100 words, followed by the JEL classification references (<http://www.aeaweb.org/journal/elclasjn.html>). Rivista di Politica Economica, is indexed in the Journal of Economic Literature. Manuscripts should be prepared using a standard word processing package. The contents of the papers shall be the sole responsibility of the authors and publication shall not imply the concurrence of the editor or the publisher.

2. The manuscript. The text and references should be checked thoroughly for errors before submission. It is the responsibility of the author to ensure that the typescript is correct in style, syntax and spelling. Papers should normally be divided into headed sections.

3. Title page. The first page of one of the three printed copies of the typescript submitted must contain: the full title; the name of all the authors which shall appear in alphabetical order, under which the affiliation of all authors shall be indicated. The e-mail of each author shall appear in a footnote in the first page of the typescript. Apart, the indication of the author who will be responsible for correspondence and correcting of proofs shall be provided to the editorial office together with full address, telephone and fax numbers of all the authors.

4. Tables and Graphs. Tables should be numbered and headed with short titles, and if included in the Appendix, they shall be numbered as progressive. Graphs shall be headed and numbered progressively.

5. Acknowledgements. Acknowledgements should appear in a footnote of the first page and it is good use to thank the anonymous referees and quote the usual disclaimer.

6. References. When quoted in the text the style is: Basberg B.L. (1987) or Archibugi D. - Pianta M. (1992) or Altissimo F. et al., 2000. References are listed alphabetically after the text. Journal and book titles should be written out in full. Examples are:

Dosi G., «Sources, Procedures and Microeconomic Effects of Innovation», Journal of Economic Literature, vol. 26, no. 3, 1998, pp. 1120-71.

Kline R. - Rosenberg N., «An Overview of Innovation», in Landau R. - Rosenberg N. (eds.), The Positive Sum Strategy, Washington DC, National Academy Press, 1986.

If the work quoted is part of a Working Paper or mimeo, the indication shall be as follows: place, institution, Working Paper no. ..., year of publication. For papers submitted in Italian, any quotation of extracts in English shall be translated into Italian.

7. Footnotes. These should be numbered consecutively in the text.

8. Proofs. Proofs will be e-mailed to the 'corresponding' author for correction. These must be corrected and returned within two weeks otherwise publication may be delayed. Alterations to proofs other than corrections of printer's errors may be charged to the authors.

9. Offprints. Each corresponding author will receive 2 free copies of the issue where the paper is published but no offprints are envisaged. On request, authors may contact the printers for offprints.

10. Copyright. Submission of a paper to Rivista di Politica Economica will be taken to imply that it presents original unpublished work, not under consideration for publication elsewhere. A copyright assignment form will be sent to the authors when a paper is accepted for publication in the journal after the refereeing. This publishing agreement should be completed and returned to the editorial office. The copyright covers the exclusive rights to reproduce and distribute the article, including reprints, photographic reproductions, microfilm or any other reproductions of similar nature, and translations.
